The "March King."—The continued popularity of Souss's marches is somawhat phenomenal, if the great bandmaster fails to play one of them at any of his concerts, he invariably receives a number of notes begging him to do so. Upon the instant he strikes up the "Washington Post," the "High School Cadets," or the later "Liberty Beil," or "Manhattan Beach," the audience invariably breaks out into spontaneous applanse. It is no wonder Sousa has been crowned the "March King," He has carned the title by vote of millions of people all over the world, who hum and thrum and follow the band to listen to the inspiring strains of his to the inspiring strains of his martial airs. James F. Duncan vs. the School

The appeal from Justice Ashburn's decision in the case of Duncan vs. the School Board was heard by Judge Hauckel vesterday. It appears that James Duneau, City Attorney, examined the title to the Hemenway property in Brambleton for which he charged the School Board $100. The board refused to pay the bill, holding that Mr. Duncan was City Attorney and compelled to render the service. City Attorney Shelton represented the School Board and Mr. A. B. Seld-ner Mr. Duncan.
